IPDC AT A GLANCE:

IPDC is a registered not for profit community organisation. At present, IPDC is operating full-fledged chapters in NSW, Victoria, Queensland, Western Australia, South Australia, ACT and Tasmania. IPDC volunteers are well-known for their Da'wah activities among the Muslim community in Australia since 2000. By the infinite grace of Allah SWT, IPDC has successfully established and run Islamic School, many Masjids and Islamic centres in all major cities of Australia. Through all these centres, IPDC coordinates Islamic and general education for children, youths and adults. Some of the activities that we have organised across all states include: Quran/Scripture classes, study circles, regular and special learning sessions, learning camps, workshops, seminars, Qiyam-Ul-Layil and other educational activities. One of the main objectives is to facilitate the integration of Muslim youth into the wider Australian community, while upholding their Islamic values and cultural identities. In this journey, IPDC wants to work with you.
